

Grim Reaper Anejo Tequila 1L

Oceano Azul Grim Reaper Añejo Tequila is a mesmerizing tequila that immediately commands attention, not just for its rich taste, but for the intriguing bottle that houses it. Sculpted meticulously in the form of the enigmatic Grim Reaper, this bottle stands as a testament to the artistry and craftsmanship that goes beyond just the spirit inside.

This Añejo Tequila, distilled from 100% pure agave, carries an age-old Mexican tradition in every sip. As it rests, it acquires a depth of flavor that tells tales of the sun-drenched agave fields and the hands that have crafted this liquid gold.

The double-sided/two-faces bottle's design, while evoking a sense of mystique and allure, is also a nod to the cycle of life and death, and perhaps, in a poetic way, to the circle of tequila – from the growth of the agave to its transformation into this aged elixir.

Technical Details

Country of Origin: Mexico
Type of Spirit: Tequila (Añejo)

Cask: White Oak
ABV: 40%

Tasting Notes: The first sip presents a creamy mouthfeel, followed by a wave of caramel and vanilla flavors are noticeable, but restrained, offering a pleasant counterpoint to the earthy agave. As the tequila develops on the palate, subtle nutty and oaky tones emerge, along with a hint of peppery spice that dances along the edges of your tongue.
